

Wealth Iduwe

A frontend developer with proven experience in developing interactive and responsive user interfaces for best user experience. I write readable, reusable, scalable, declarative codes with strict compliance to best practices and understand every stage of project's cycle from design, development and deployment. With my vast knowledge of CSS I can implement pixel-perfect UI designs with great deal of responsiveness.

Proficient with ReactJs using functional programming with hooks and angular using OOP. Well-versed with DOM manipulation, DOM traversing, event delegation in target, capture and bubbling phases, pure functions, web APIs, async programming- promisifying, Context API, postman, consuming promises using promise combinators and error handling.

My commitment, skill set and contributions earned me a spot amongst the best (top 2.5%) as a finalist, in ZURI HNGi8 Annual Internship working with the ZuriTeam, on a large project called zuri chat. Moreso my performance on a remote React social media app gig called The Auntie Network, earned me commendations just 2weeks after I resumed along with financial tips.

I'm teachable, hard-working, with great passion for amazing designs and great user experience; Undertaken paid courses on popular platforms such a udemy, pluralsight, ustacky for regular upskill in frontend development.

Competencies: JavaScript, Typescript, Angular, React, Redux, Context API, Firebase(Auth, Firestore), CSS, SCSS, JQuery, HTML, Tailwind, Bootstrap, Docker, GIT.
